

Pointer Stories

POINTER STORY (6)

⑥ He was unable to bear the expenses of his life/family then he started tuition in his extra time. Ali belonged to a poor family. He was an intelligent and hardworking student. He passed his M.Sc. with distinction. He had to seek an employment because he had to support and look after his family. wherever he goes to get a job he sees 'No vacancy' board. But he did not lose heart. He studied a lot. He applied for and got commission in the Pakistan Army. Soon by his devotion to his duty and hardworking he rose to a high position in the Army. In this way he was able to support his family and proved that hardwork becomes fruitful.

POINTER STORY (ii)

On seeing a lonely girl on the road he stopped his car and came out of car at once. He was the professor of university. He was very kind hearted man. A young girl was injured and was ~~very~~ very surprise. He consoled her and brought her to hospital in emergency. Here, he informed the doctors about the situation and said for medical treatment. Moreover, he took informed about his family and informed them about the girl. They came and thanked to professor very heartily and blessed for his life.

POINTER STORY (23)

Friends were sitting in around suddenly a bell rang and from the other side, a customer of electricity complaint about his circuit's fault. Abid is an Electrician in the department of Electricity. He is very brilliant, active and genius electrician. He went to the home of customer and found that light has gone. He had better knowledge of electricity. Using electrical equipment he checked connection and breaker by using tester. Through meter he checked voltage and current and at last he found fault and repaired it and light was on. On this hardwork his customer was happy and prayed for his better future.

PAKISTAN

POINLEK STORIES

①

Their relations were very good but suddenly they took a new turn of their life. Ahmed and Ali both were cousins. They lived together from their childhood. They studied together. After completing their study, Ahmad applied in ~~apt~~ Army medical ~~camp~~ college. He came in merit list. He did his MBBS course and took permanent commission as Captain. He was very talented and intelligent doctor of that year. He ~~is~~ serving in military hospital as captain doctor. Ali wanted to devote himself for the defence of his country. He applied in Army for commission. He was granted commission and was selected as ~~2nd Lt~~ ~~he~~ After the completion of ~~two~~ year training, he became 2nd Lieutenant. He was very brave and bold. In Swat operation, both gave their services. Ahmad as doctor in Medical camp for the treatment of soldiers in Swat operation. Ali with his company completed the operation successfully. Now they both have close relation according to serving in Pakistan Army.

POINTER STORY (4)

Their relation suddenly changed when... They changed their ways of life. Ahmad and Aslam both were doctor. Aslam decided to join civil hospital near his home, but Ahmad joined NGO. He wanted to serve the poor people of backward areas. He was very intelligent and industrious doctor. His organization moved to some area to aware and improve life standard of people. He told the people ways of living and what foods are better for health. He guided the people to improve sanitation system. On his best performance, NGO awarded him a best doctor of NGO.

PAKISTAN

POINTER STORY (12)

He join service to earn money but when he became a leader he devoted his future life for the services and defence of his country. Ali is a major in Pakistan Army. Now a days he gave his services in Special Services Group. He led many mission to defeat the enemies. After the training of Pakistan Army his mind was fully changed and he decided to sacrifice his life for the protection of his motherland. He worked very hard and soon got promotion due to his best performance and planning to defeat the enemies.

PAKISTAN

POINTER STORY (25)

He could not stand firm because he had to support his family. Aslam is He was an intelligent, hardworking and industrious Engineer. To achieve his goal he had worked day and night but he could not get a job. He had to seek an employment because he had to look after his family. But he did not lose heart. He studied a lot. Soon by his hard work and devotion to his ambition he got his ambition. He took up a competitive test of Engineering and came in merit. He was successful and expert Engineering of his time. He was given charge of constructing a road in village. Engineer Aslam drew some studied books from library for diagrams. He also used internet and took some sketches of foreign buildings and roads as sketches and concept. However he prepared a well efficient sketch of road and put the project in practical work. Soon by his plan, zeal and devotion road project was completed which brought

POINTER STORY (15)

Because of his youth he always wanted to serve the nation. Amjad is a doctor. He aims to be specialist in his field. He is very intelligent, hardworking and industrious doctor. He took admission in medical college in PhD programme. He learned from high level professor doctor. Draw books of related subjects from library to study. Used internet to read histories and discoveries of and researches of old doctors, their ways of treatment. Due to all of this knowledge, he put his work in practical form. Due to his continuous struggling and devotion to his profession soon he became a specialist. Now he was one of the best specialists doctors of the world.

PAKISTAN

POINTER STORY (2)

She was all alone in her room. Suddenly she heard a voice. Someone was calling for help. She ^{is Maria} is doctor in nearby hospital. Her neighbour Islam was crying for help because his wife was giving birth to a child. She was much tired but she ignored her tiredness and went to the patient very quickly. She gave her first aid. Finding the condition serious, she shifted the woman to hospital where she cured and operated her properly and carefully. Woman gave birth to a child. Her family was very happy and thanked very much to the doctor Maria.

PAKISTAN

POINTER STORY(22)

Their relation take a new turn when one of them decided to become a cricketer. He is Burkat. He is very expert and active player of cricket. He wants to raise flag of Pakistan in Europe. He joined a cricket club. Here he practiced day and night. learnt the history of old players and their ways of playing. Took advices of Senior cricketers and learn more about bowling from coaches. He spent extra time on practice. He continued his struggling. At last, he played against other team and performed well. which brought honour for him and country and awarded best bowler of match.

PAKISTAN

POINTER STORY (3)

Her life was glimmers till --- she --- achieved her aim. When Asma was studying in 8th class she was not so mature. She belonged to a poor family. Her family hardly supported her expenses of education. When she got admission in Matriculation, she observed the problem of Medical facility in her village. So she decided to become a doctor. She passed her matriculation and Intermediate with distinction. She applied in Army Medical college. She came in merit. After successful completion of her MBBS course she became a doctor. Now she is serving in Army hospital and is leading a successful life. She ~~decided~~ planned for a hospital in her village. She wants to serve the poor people.

POINTER STORY (24)

When he saw her in trouble then he helped her. Kamran is a doctor in nearby hospital. He is very intelligent, hardworking and industrious doctor. He want to serve the community. He was very bold and kind hearted doctor. He was on leaving. He was going to hospital on his duty. Suddenly he saw a woman lying injured on road. He stopped his car and loaded the woman in his car and took her to the hospital in Emergency where the lady doctors treated and cured her very carefully. Kamran at the same time informed her family. They also reached there. On recovery of woman, they all thanked Kamran and prayed for his best future.

POINTER STORY (6)

He could not stand firm because of unemployment. Amjad is an Engineer. He was an intelligent and hardworking Engineer. To achieve his goal he had worked day and night but he could not get a job. He had to seek an employment because he had to look after his family. But he did not lose heart. He studied a lot. Soon by his hard work and devotion to his ^{aim} duty, he got his ambition. He took up a competitive test of Engineering and came in merit list. He was a successful Engineer of that year. He was given charge of constructing a road in a District. Since people of the district faced problem of transportation so they were quite happy on the construction of road in their district.